The Southwest Women's Chorus is looking for women who can carry a tune, enjoy choral music, have choral blending voices, and are willing to dedicate their time and effort to a quality group. Reading music, although desirable, is not required. The chorus was founded in 2000 to provide a place for women who are sincere in their desire to experience the art of quality choral singing in the nurturing environment of a women's group and are willing to work for it. We will be preparing our annual Christmas Concert with a festive mix of classical music, familiar carols, and more, combining the sacred and secular for a festive holiday occasion.

The chorus meets on Tuesdays in the Old Town Temecula Community Theater on Main Street, upstairs rehearsal room in the back, from 7-10 PM, starting August 19th. Membership is by a simple audition with no preparation required. Auditions will take place on August 5th and 12th, 7-9 PM in the same rehearsal room.
